

Professional and Career Development Loans from Learning and Skills Council

A Professional and Career Development Loan could help you pay for learning that enhances your job skills or career prospects. It's a bank loan, so you'll have to pay it back once you've left your course. However, you don't pay interest for the period when you're in learning.

Learners should call the helpline on 0800 585 505 to place orders, or for more information visit
